With deep affection, we the staff of the 1985-86 Fayettevillian Yearbook dedicate this volume of the yearbook to Dr. And Mrs. Walter T. Pace, two very unique people.

Mrs. Valeria J. Pace, Postal Clerk, has served the students of Fayetteville State University for 30 years.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina she received the Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education from Fayetteville State University and did further study at Atlanta University.

Ms. Pace began her career as a teacher in the public schools of Georgia where she held positions in the Wayne County School System, Sumter County School System and the Americus City School System.

During her tenure at FSU she has served as clerk-in-charge of the Post Office and Bookstore. Ms. Pace presently serves as a member of the State Employees Association of North Carolina and a member of the Fayetteville State University National Alumni Association.

Ms. Pace is the mother of a daughter, Jacqueline Pace and a member of the Baptist Union Missionary Church.

Dr. Walter T. Pace, Professor of Education, has served the students of Fayetteville State University for 30 years. An outstanding role model for those who strive to enrich their lives, communities and race, Dr. Pace has proven himself to be an exemplary intellectual and educational leader on the contemporary scene.

A native of Sumter County, Georgia, he received his B.S. Degree in Agricultural Education from Savannah State College. Subsequently, he acquired the Masters Degree in Elementary Education Administration and Supervision from Atlanta University and the Doctorate of Education from Wayne State University.

During his tenure at FSU he has served in many capacities including Assistant Professor of Education and Psychology, Director of Student Teaching, Chairman, Department of Education and Psychology and Director, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education Institutional Self-Study. He has also been a Visiting Professor of Education in the Florida A & M University Graduate School. Dr. Pace is the father of a daughter, Jacqueline Pace and holds memberships in the North Carolina Teachers Association, the National Teachers Association, and the National Education Association.

COMMENTS FROM FORMER STUDENTS

Dr. Walter T. Pace is an outstanding teacher; one who is always interested in excellence. He taught us and I agree, that "education is a change in behavior for a desirable end". Dr. Ella W. Batchelor '61.

Dr. Pace,

"You're a definite asset to your profession. Thanks for sharing your wisdom". Mrs. Kathy Perez, Graduate Student '85

CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

As this institution opened its doors almost six-score years ago, its founders envisioned that it would meet certain basic needs of the black population which was just emerging from slavery as the country was emerging from the Civil War. Today Fayetteville State University is proud to have expanded its goals and aspirations to the point that we strive to meet the needs of all segments of our society. We have indeed recognized that we are a full service university.

Our institution has reached yet another milestone this year in reaching the Comprehensive University Level I status. We recognize the responsibilities associated with it and commit ourselves and our resources to the task of not only meeting but exceeding the minimum expectations of an institution at this level.

Throughout its illustrious history Fayetteville State University has embarked upon many missions and accomplished many feats. The sterling past must not be tarnished by mere mediocrity as we continue to present our achievements in "deeds, not words."

As we go about our day-to-day activities we must constantly endeavor and project the most positive image of our university. The quality that has been a hallmark of this university will loom even brighter in the future if this principle is more consistently applied. Whatever the pursuit, be it in academics, sports, residence life, or leisure time; excellence should always be our prudent guide.

I challenge the faculty, staff and students to remain ever-cognizant of our past and join me in my excitement for the future of Fayetteville State University — "where quality and excellence are our primary goals."

L-R Dr. Marye Jeffries, Director of Weekend And Evening College And Interim Director of Continuing Education Center, Dr. Valeria Fleming, Provost And Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs; Dr. Bessie W. Blake, Dean, School of New Resources, College of New Rochelle in New York, Dr. Charles A. Lyons, Jr., Chancellor. Dr. Bessie Blake, speaks to the faculty, staff and administrators during the Pre-School Conference held in August.

Chancellor Charles "A" Lyons, Jr., in his address at the university's 118th Fall Convocation, challenges the school's five new deans and its director of graduate studies to use their ingenuity, creativity and resourcefulness to endow the school's first academic chair.

In addressing the new students, Chancellor Lyons said "pride in oneself and the school is needed, as well as personal integrity." "We want to see our students take pride in an institution that is serious about providing them with the kind of education that they are entitled to."

FALL CONVOCATION

BLACK COLLEGE DAY

BLACK COLLEGE DAY: EXCELLENCE WITHOUT EXCUSE

Stand up and Cheer! Stand up and cheer for one of the most impressive events of the Bronco's school year ... Black College Day. It is a day when the Broncos join together with other students from predominantly Black Colleges and Universities across North Carolina to emphasize the importance of black college unity.

While musicians gather to aid the hungry of the world, students from Fayetteville State University were traveling to Raleigh, North Carolina to display their support to the national leaders who stress the importance of Black Colleges and Universities.

The Reality Of A New Beginning

Suddenly, plans became realities and the future becomes the present. The students became involved in aiming to make their year a most memorable one. Casting their vote for the candidate of their choice was a way to end the old year and begin a new one.

Smiles that influences. Middle left: Louise Driver, a candidate for the Student Government Association President, gives Daniel Dunlap some helpful suggestions prior to casting his vote.

Elected Officials Speak . . .

Question: Having achieved a very important goal in life, what advice would you give to your fellow students who are striving to achieve their goals?

Louise Driver, Student Government Association President Comments . . .

Having achieved a very important goal in life, I would advise fellow students who are striving to achieve their goals to always keep in mind that life is a series of individualized choices. It is a historical fact that a minimal number of goals are achieved in the absence of appropriate preparation. Furthermore, one's attitude and perception of the goals set, as well as decisions made today will directly or indirectly affect those goals achieved tomorrow. For these reasons alone, each personal choice made today should enhance the possibility of successfully obtaining a specific personal goal and/or concerted effort tomorrow.

Eugene Johnson, SGA Vice President Comments . . .

Having achieved such an important goal in life has given me greater confidence in myself, and a better view and understanding of the cognizant demands of our society and economy. Your interest, desires, dedication, motivation, determination, and hard work are goals you must ascertain for your opposition. You need much more than just the idea of striving to succeed in life. Set no limit to the amount of that quality and some more in order to face the challenges of the future.

It is my hope and dream that as each of you graduate, you will work toward gaining as many skills as possible in your chosen profession.

Kevin Evans, SGA Business Manager Comments . . .

Perseverance is the key!!! within all aspects of life (college or society) the ability to persevere is important. Foresight is also important; being able to plan for the future and stick to those plans, make goals a lot easier to obtain. With a combination of perseverance and foresight success will be the ultimate outcome.

Michelle Ballard, Miss Rudolph Jones Student Center Comments

After having achieved one of my many goals in life I would advise my fellow BRONCOS to strive very hard even when everything seems to be failing and try to always reach for the stars. It is most important to put all of your trust in God, because he and he alone can help you achieve all of your goals.

Mathi Staton, Anthony Alexander, SGA Business Manager, 1984-85 and Dianna Cooper, candidate for Miss FSU 1985 watch Ruth Merritt as she uses available resources to beat the heat.

Cooperative Education is an educational program that integrates on-campus classroom study with off-campus work experience. Students enrolled in the Cooperative Education Program alternate between periods of study at the University and periods of employment with business, government and non-profit organizations. Through the Cooperative Education Program students are placed in jobs which relate to their major area of study. The program is designed to assist students in developing self-confidence, maturity and in making the transportation from campus life to the world of work.

FREEDOM BOWL SELECTION

Fayetteville State University's senior, Charles Harris was selected as one of nine CIAA (Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference) players to participate in the Second Annual Freedom Bowl. The Freedom Bowl was composed of players from the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and the CIAA butted heads with all stars from the Southwestern Athletic Conference.

Charles Harris, a 6' 3", 215 pound defensive tackle from Wendell, North Carolina was the first player to represent the university in the Black College All Star game. Harris lead the Broncos' defensive team with 80 solo tackles, 20 assisted tackles, 7 quarterback sacks for 56 1/2 yards. He also had two fumble recoveries and five blocked passes.

An integral part of the Broncos Athletic Department are the members of the Sports Information Statistician Crew. L-R: Sandra Franklin, Video and Camera, Stacy Eaton, Offensive Recorder, Marion Crowe, Offensive Recorder, Sharon Wood, Defensive Recorder and Garrett Davis, Defensive Recorder

Broncos — 42
Bulldogs — 0

The Broncos kept Bowie State College Bulldogs continuously off guard and rolled to an easy 42-0 win in the season opener for both teams. The Broncos, led by Jerome Morgan passing and the running of Ronnie King, has a net offensive output of 509 yards, 206 yards in the air and 303 yards on the ground. The net offensive output set a school record for total offensive and the 42 points equal another school record for the most points scored in a single game. The Broncos defensive unit, meanwhile, shut down the Bulldogs, limited them to a total of 121 offensive yards. Defensive standout for the Broncos was Phillip Julious with seven solo tackles, one assisted tackle and one fumble recovery.

Broncos — 7
Trojans — 7

The Virginia State University and Fayetteville State University game was predicted to be a defensive struggle and the outcome, a 7-7 tie, proved the prediction. The Broncos employed the basic fundamentals of football — block on offense and tackle on defense.

The Trojans scored first with 3:06 left in the first quarter when Anthony Hamilton broke tackles and raced 68 yards for the touchdown.

The Broncos took possession with three minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Jerome Morgan connected on three straight passes for 73 yards to David Cooper to set up the score. Morgan hit Anthony Faulcon with a two-yard touchdown pass to culminate to a 80 yard drive.

The Broncos and Coach Robert Pulliam began a new era at Fayetteville State University as they entered its 31st season in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA). Last season the Broncos were 4-4-1, the most successful season since 1979. However, prognosticators felt sorry for the Broncos and their first year mentor. Pedications had rated the Broncos no higher than fifth place in the Southern Division of the conference.

Not to be out done, their first game of the season, the Broncos unveiled its progressive offensive approach under coach Pulliam and first year offensive coordinator Tim Clifton. With the contribution of Jerome Morgan and the running of Ronnie King, 91 yards on 18 attempts, the Broncos put on an offensive display that netted 509 yards, 206 in the air and 303 yards on the ground. This display set a new school record for total offense.

Jerome Morgan, who was instrumental in the team's four wins last year, started as quarterback against Bowie State College Bulldogs. In the game, Morgan rushed for 31 yards, threw for 170 yards and two touchdowns in the 42-0 win. That equals a school record for the most points scored in a single game. Morgan was consequently named CIAA player of the week.

First year mentor Robert Pulliam discussed game strategy with team members during the Bowie State College Bulldogs game.

Lady Broncos Display Enthusiasm

The Lady Broncos approached the 1985 volleyball season with inexperience, a great deal of enthusiasm, a great deal of determination and a strong will to win as they compiled a record of four wins and fourteen losses. The long hours of practice, under the leadership of first year mentor Dr. Peggy Green, proved worthwhile with each game.

The only veteran returning from last years squad was sophomore Sandra McQueen, a 5'8" hitter from Maxton, North Carolina. The squad posted their wins over Shaw University and Norfolk State University.

Methods & Materials Laboratory

The primary focus of services provided by the Laboratory will involve activities geared toward pre-professional teaching experience. It is not the intent, however, of the laboratory to exclude any portion of the university population with interest in discipline related sponsored activities. It is expected that the laboratory will be available to undergraduate and graduate students at the university.

Assist students in performing well in the classroom during student teaching. Expose students to effective teaching materials for use in the classroom. Conduct workshops on teaching strategies for developing personal relationship. Teach students to make teacher-made materials and prepare bulletin boards. Teach students to design appropriate teacher centers for the classroom and develop lesson plans. Provide current strategies in teaching and encourage students to become motivated.

Golf Team

Kenneth Sims, Captain
Timothy Duke

Stanley Jackson
Allen Warren

Charlie Peterson

Jeffery Dunovant

In the past fourteen years, the Men of Fayetteville State University's Golf Team have won thirteen CIAA Championship titles, including a string of 12 straight wins.

In 1985 CIAA Champions have three individuals returning to defend their title. This group includes Jeffery Dunovant, Stanley Jackson, Co-Most Valuable Player and Kenneth Sims, the Conference individual champion for 1984 and 1985.

The team is anchored by freshmen Timothy Duke, Allen Warren, and Charlie Peterson. All which makes the ingredients for another championship combination.

EDITOR' MESSAGE

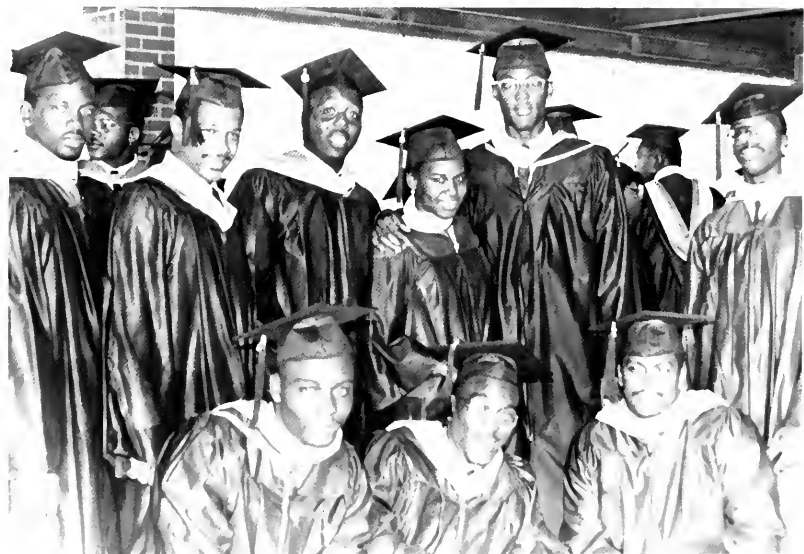

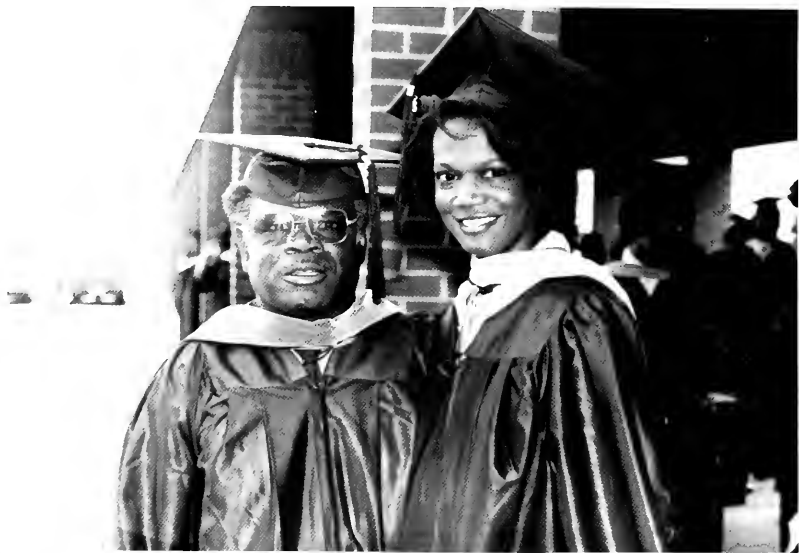

After many long, frustrating hours of very hard work, we the Yearbook Staff are proud to present to you the 29th volume of the Fayettevillian.

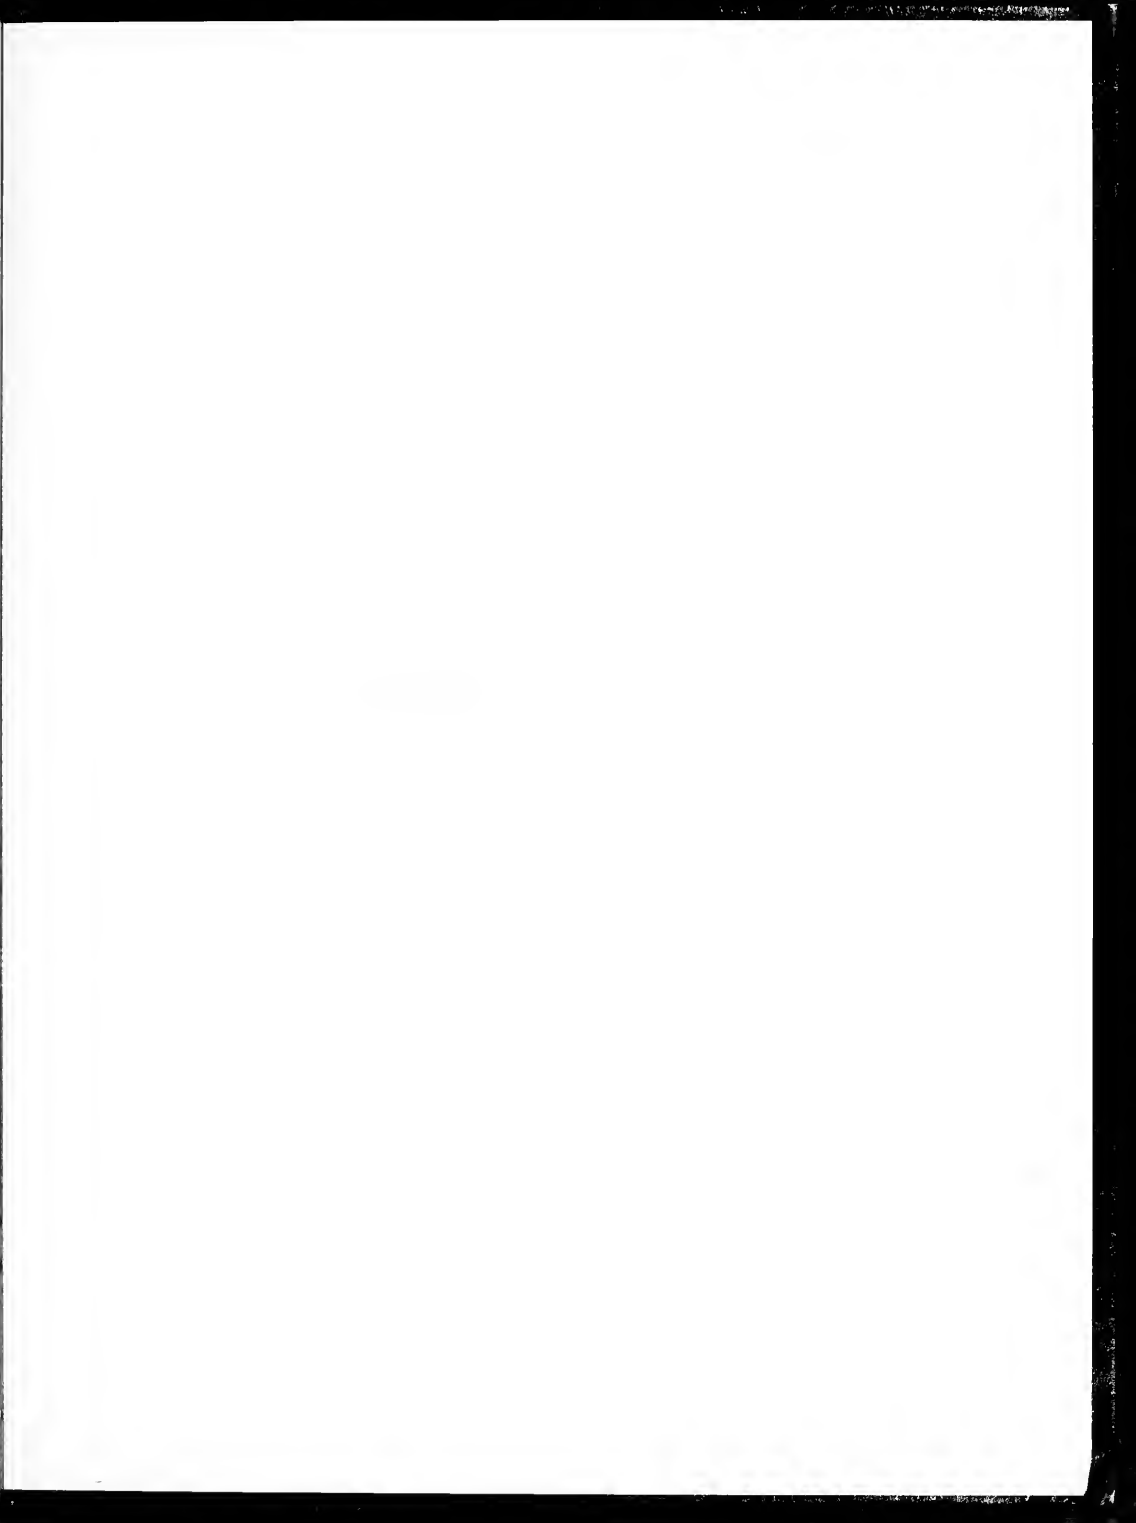

We, the Yearbook Staff are pleased with the outcome of this yearbook and hope that in turn, you are too.

A lot of thanks goes to my staff: Mimi Boyd, Marion Crowe, Jr., Garrett Davis, Dorothy Horton, Eugene Johnson, Donyell Robinson, Arnold Smith, Phyllis Thompson, and Dwight Vincent. A special thank-you to Rosemary Byrd, Yvonne Robinson, Irving Veazie, and especially to my family who encouraged me to do whatever I thought was best. A very special thank-you goes to the Lord, God Almighty; because without him — none of this could have been possible.
